

Thinking Heads

'All of us are smarter than any one of us'

A series of four, 2-hour facilitated sessions addressing challenges commonly faced by headteachers.

Typical Topics Covered

- Making Meetings Valuable
- Leading Challenging Staff
- Self-Care & Wellbeing
- Managing Building Projects
- Leading Change
- Making Lesson Observation Developmental
- Which Data Helps Teachers Most?
- Managing Problem Parents
- Building Relationships
- Restructuring
- Developing Partnerships

Dates, Times, Venue

8:20 am-10:20am

WPDC, Burntwood School Site
Friday 30th November, 2018
Friday 18th January, 2019
Friday 8th February, 2019
Friday 8th March, 2019

Facilitated by Thinking Classroom consultant and ILM executive coach Mike Fleetham these sessions will use techniques for creating high quality professional dialogue in a confidential setting.

Each session comprises a focussed input and a structured open forum in which group members will be able to set the agenda and share their experiences, suggestions, ideas and questions. This is a positive, collaborative problem solving opportunity using group coaching activities that you can also use back in school with your leadership teams.

Cost and Booking

- £250 for all four sessions
- Booking: courses@chesterton.wandsworth.sch.uk
- Places limited to 8